Convocation at Carleton University

The Convocation ceremony (the calling together of the academic assembly) has its roots in university traditions of medieval Europe.

The Mace

The mace is a staff symbolizing authority. In the days of knighthood, it was a weapon, but after the 16th century it became solely a symbol of authority carried by a distinguished member of an assembly. It is used on ceremonial occasions to signify the right of an individual or institution to perform a certain function—in the case of universities, to grant degrees.

At Convocation, the mace is carried ahead of the Chancellor as he enters and leaves each ceremony. (Marshal of Convocation H.H.J. Nesbitt has performed this function for all but one of the University's 83 Convocations.) During the ceremony the mace is displayed on a special stand as an embodiment of the authority of the University.

Carleton's mace was presented to the University in 1976 as a gift from the Chairman of the Board of Governors at that time, Mr. Hyman Soloway. It is a silver-plated staff approximately three feet long. At the upper end there is a bowl marked with the University's coat of arms and the University motto in both Latin and English—"Opera Nobis Aeterna" and "Ours the Task Eternal." From the upper portion of the bowl rises a phoenix. Traditional oak leaves surround the lower end of the staff.

Coat of Arms

Carleton University's coat of arms is described in heraldic terms as follows: "On a field sable; in radiants d'argent, a maple leaf gules charged with an open book; crest—a phoenix propre." It is comprised of a black shield bearing an open book on a red maple leaf surrounded by silver rays. The shield is surmounted by a phoenix, and below the shield is a scroll bearing the motto "Ours the Task Eternal."

The open book on the maple leaf signifies that Carleton University is in the nation's capital and that learning is open to all who wish to partake of it. The radiants are the light of learning. The phoenix, the legendary eternal bird, symbolizes the renewing of learning from older foundations, in recognition of Henry Marshall Tory's role in the founding of the University when he was 82 years old. "Ours the Task Eternal" is taken from a Walt Whitman poem entitled "Pioneers" and ties in with the eternal quality of the phoenix.

And so, the Carleton University coat of arms symbolizes sound learning, good citizenship, and the highest hopes of humanity.

Academic Dress

The academic dress of Carleton University is a compromise between that found in the ancient foundations of Britain and Canada and the American Intercollegiate Code. All three hoods—bachelor's, master's, and doctor's—are of the simple or Oxford shape. Bachelor's is made of black stuff; master's and doctor's are made of black silk and all are lined with silver silk with two chevrons, one of red and one of black. From bachelor's to doctor's the hoods are progressively longer and opened to show more and more of the lining.

The velvet border of the hoods denotes the degrees granted according to the following colour combinations: architecture—cerise; arts—white; commerce—camel brown; computer science—royal blue; engineering—orange; industrial design—dark cardinal; journalism—white with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; music—venetian pink; public administration—peacock blue; science—golden yellow; social work—cream; and doctor of philosophy—purple.

The bachelor's gown, to be worn with the above hoods, is of full length, made of black stuff, with a gathered yolk behind, and long open-fronted sleeves. The master's gown is of full style, made of black silk or rayon, with full gathered yolk behind, and closed sleeves with an opening at the elbows. The doctoral gown is the same style as the master's, made of fine royal blue cloth with facings of light blue silk.

The gown of the Honorary Doctor of Laws, Literature, Science, and Engineering is a full robe with bell-shaped sleeves, made of fine royal blue cloth with facings and sleeves in light blue silk. The hood is made of the same material as the gown, has the same lining as that for degrees by examination, and is bordered with dark mauve for the degree Doctor of Laws; vibrant blue for the degree Doctor of Literature; red for the degree Doctor of Science; and orange for the degree Doctor of Engineering.

The Presiding Officer of Convocation is the Chancellor,
The Hon. Gordon Robertson, P.C., C.C., M.A., D.C.L., LL.D., D. de l'Univ., F.R.S.C.

Accompanying him on the podium are Mr. Ross M. Cruikshank, B.A.Sc.,
Vice-Chairman of the Board of Governors, and William E. Beckel, B.A., M.Sc., Ph.D.,
President and Vice-Chancellor.

Assisting the Chancellor are:

O Canada

O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

God Save the Queen

God save our gracious Queen,
Long live our noble Queen,
God save the Queen!

Send her victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us;
God save the Queen!

Recipients of Honorary Degrees

Saran A. Narang

Saran A. Narang, Principal Research Officer, Division of Biological Sciences, National Research Council of Canada (NRC) and Head, Section of Molecular Genetics, is being honoured with the degree of Doctor of Science, honoris causa, "in recognition of original approaches in research on the frontiers of science resulting in significant achievements in the important new field of genetic engineering."

Dr. Narang is recognized as one of the world's leading authorities in the field of molecular genetics, particularly in the chemical synthesis of genes. He was the first scientist to synthesize a gene with full biological activity. His highly original concepts and procedures have put the synthesis of genes on a practical basis.

This has had a profound effect in the area of genetic engineering because it has made "gene surgery," the cutting and splicing of genetic material, a relatively simple process, and one which is now used world-wide.

Dr. Narang has developed methods which are extensively used for the production of insulin, interferon, and growth hormones; in the diagnostic analysis of human genes; and the isolation of natural genes. The work forms one of the basic elements in the development of the biotechnology industry all over the world.

Dr. Narang has written over 110 research papers, and holds 10 patents. He has also been a consultant to industry and called as an expert advisor by the Senate of the United States and by the United Nations.

Born in India in 1930, Dr. Narang received his undergraduate and graduate degrees in chemistry at Punjab and Calcutta Universities. Before accepting a position at NRC in 1966, he worked as a post-doctoral fellow at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, and as a research associate at the Enzyme Institute at the University of Wisconsin. In 1983 he served as Vice-President of the 15th International Congress of Genetics, held in New Delhi.

For the past 12 years, Dr. Narang has been Adjunct Professor of Chemistry at Carleton, and has actively collaborated with faculty and students in research activities and in teaching graduate courses.

Earlier this year, Dr. Narang was named an Officer of the Order of Canada. He is also a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada (1979), a Fellow of the Johns Hopkins Society of Scholars (1979), Recipient of the Coochibahar Professorship Memorial Award from the Indian Association for the Cultivation of Sciences (1973), and Recipient of the Ottawa Biological and Biochemical Society Award (1979).

Hon. Jean-Luc Pepin

Jean-Luc Pepin, Visiting Professor of Political Science at the University of Ottawa, and Fellow-in-Residence at the Institute for Research on Public Policy, is being honoured with the degree Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, "in recognition of two decades of commitment to the establishment of an effective Canadian federation embodying the vital participation of French-speaking Canadians."

He is perhaps Canada's best known and most enthusiastic federalist. In a public sector career that spanned 20 years and included positions at the highest levels in government and the public service, Jean-Luc Pepin established a reputation as a dedicated proponent and eloquent spokesman for a Canadian federation involving the active participation of French-speaking Canadians.

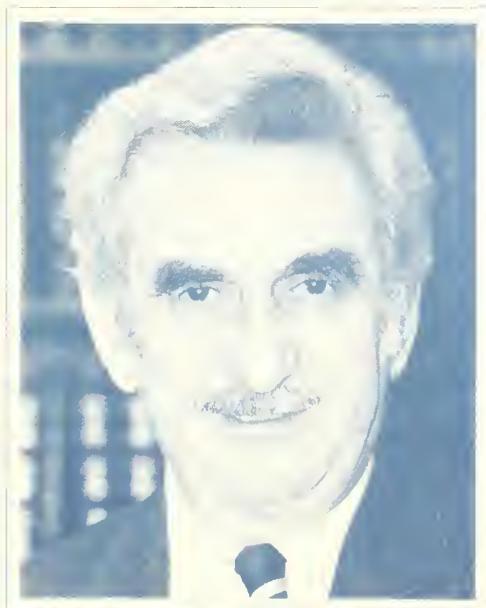

He was first elected to Parliament for the constituency of Drummond-Athabasca in 1963. He was appointed to the federal cabinet in 1965, and held various portfolios including Minister of Energy, Mines and Resources and Minister of Industry, Trade and Commerce.

After defeat in the general election of 1972, Mr. Pepin established and became the first President of Interimco, a trading company designed to assist Canadian exporters. He was named (by then Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau) Chairman of the Anti-Inflation Board in 1975; and in 1977, along with the late John Robarts, assumed the co-chairmanship of the Task Force on Canadian Unity which reported in 1979. That same year, he was once more returned to the federal Parliament as Member for the Ottawa-Carleton riding, and was re-elected in 1980.

In 1980, Mr. Pepin was appointed Minister of Transport, and was responsible for the resolution of the most difficult of Canadian freight rate problems: the Crow's Nest Pass rates on the transport of western grain. In 1983, he was appointed Minister of State for External Affairs, the senior cabinet post. Ill health forced him to retire from politics, and he did not run in the 1984 election, but returned to the University of Ottawa and the Department of Political Science where his career began in 1951.

Born in Drummondville, Quebec in 1924, he studied law and philosophy at the University of Ottawa, and political science at the University of Paris. He was a member of the Department of Political Science at the University of Ottawa from 1951 to 1963, the last four years as departmental chairman.

He has been awarded honorary degrees from the Universities of Sherbrooke, Laval, Bishop's, and Ottawa, and in 1978 was made Companion of the Order of Canada.
